

Global LPO Conference, Los Angeles, USA, 5-6 Oct 2011

Information Technology Requirements of a Successful Legal Offshoring Set Up; Cloud changes everything in the "Second Decade" of Outsourcing & Shared Services

- Offshoring Issues: Relative advantages of outsourcing e-discovery
- Requirements for ethical protection and production of e-records
- Best practices of e-discovery and increased control over the e-discovery process
- Training LPO staff on e-disclosure to leverage the accessible talent pool
- Identifying the pros and cons of outsourcing an e-disclosure process before entering into legal proceedings
- Disclosure obligations: Preservation, retrieval and organization of the documents and data to facilitate reviews for disclosure and investigatory purposes
- Learning, what offshore document review operations should know about US e-discovery and European Union data protection regulations
- Avoiding the potential pitfalls - especially regarding your firm's reputation for ethical business practices-- in litigation where work has been outsourced
- Role of Cloud Computing in LPO industry
- Is Cloud re-defining delivery and expectations in Outsourcing and Shared Services?
- Is Cloud driving a new opportunity for collaboration and hybrid service delivery in IT sourcing?

Speakers:

David L. Stanton, Partner,
Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP

RajanThaokar, MD and CEO,
RnRDatalex

Moderator:

Jim Boeckman, President ,
Right Tasking Consulting