

Topic: Redesigning the modern global Law Firm; Responding to corporate purchasing strategies; Case Studies in Ethical Legal Outsourcing: What Works, What does not, and Why?

- Thinking out of the box and offering best services to legal departments - law firm's perspective
- Evaluating the offshored work frequently needed by law firms such as litigation and e-discovery, intellectual property, research, due diligence and contract drafting
- Analyzing the role of rules-complaint legal outsourcing for global law firms; LPOs: Partners or competitors for business?
- Helping the law firms of the future: How the LPOs can be the transformational partners with law firms. How private equity can bring unknown changes to the law firm of today
- Achieving firm-wide buy-in: Incorporating change management to successfully develop and execute your legal outsourcing strategy
- Real world examples of why legal process outsourcing succeeds and fails from the ethics and business points of view- case study examples of the launch of LPO initiatives

Speakers:

Steven C. Bennett,
Partner,
Jones Day (US)

Daniel H. Vaswani,
Chief Counsel,
Kagu9, Inc. (US)

Mark Ross,
VP – Legal Solutions,
Integreon Managed Solutions (US)

Moderator:

Pankaj Parnami,
Founder Director
Global Outsourcing Association of Lawyers (US)